Providing false information on a government document is considered a Class A misdemeanor under Section 37.10 of the Texas Penal Code. Upon conviction, this offense carries a penalty of a fine of up to $4,000 and possible confinement in jail for up to one year.
The granting of a permit does not presume to give authority to violate or cancel the provisions of any state or local law regulating construction. This permit becomes null and void if the authorized work or construction is not commenced, is suspended or abandoned after work is commenced, or if no inspections are obtained within a 6 month period. All permits require final inspections. New construction and remodel or addition projects are to be considered null and void after a period of 18 months I agree to abide by all laws and ordinances governing this type of work whether herein specified or not and hereby certify that I have read and examined this application and know the same to be true and correct.
